

Financial Privacy Statement from Estate Funding, Inc.

Estate Funding is committed to protecting your privacy. Our goal is to help you understand how we collect and use non-public personal information.

“Non-public Personal Information” is information that we obtain in connection with providing products and services to you. This does not include information that is available to the public such as telephone directories or government records.

This information is important to providing you with products and services that we have to offer. One of the most important assets is you and we accept the responsibility to protect your information.

Information that we collect:

- * Information that we receive from you on applications or other required loan forms.
- * Information that we receive from third-party affiliates such as credit reporting agencies.
- * All other information that we receive in regards to your transaction.

Information that we disclose:

1. We may disclose all of the information that we collect to affiliated or non-affiliated companies that assist us with obtaining mortgage financing on your behalf. We require companies to which we disclose non-public personal information about you to maintain its confidentiality.
2. We are sometimes required to disclose non-public personal information under certain circumstances. For example: credit-reporting agencies, assisting in the servicing of your loan and government response to subpoenas.

How to tell us not to share your Non-public Personal Information:

We do not disclose information about you to third parties whose only use of the information is to market a product or service. If you wish to contact us:
